

Anti-Bribery Policy

Introduction

Tutor Doctor West Hull is committed to the highest standards of ethical conduct and integrity in its business activities. This policy outlines the business's position on preventing and prohibiting bribery, in accordance with the Bribery Act 2010. Tutor Doctor West Hull will not tolerate any form of bribery by, or of, its employees, independent contractors or consultants or any person or body acting on its behalf. The Tutor Doctor West Hull's Company Director is committed to implementing effective measures to prevent, monitor and eliminate bribery.

Scope of Policy

This policy applies to all employees, independent contractors, and to temporary workers, consultants, contractors, agents and subsidiaries acting for, or on behalf of, Tutor Doctor West Hull.

Every employee and associated person acting for, or on behalf of, Tutor Doctor West Hull is responsible for maintaining the highest standards of business conduct. Any breach of this policy is likely to constitute a serious disciplinary, contractual and criminal matter for the individual concerned and may cause serious damage to the reputation and standing of the Company.

Tutor Doctor West Hull may also face criminal liability for unlawful actions taken by its employees or associated persons under the Bribery Act 2010. All employees and associated persons are required to familiarise themselves and comply with this policy, including any future updates that may be issued from time to time.

The Bribery Act 2010 came into force on 1 July 2011. This policy covers:

- the main areas of liability under the Bribery Act 2010;
- the responsibilities of employees and associated persons acting for, or on behalf of, the School; and
- the consequences of any breaches of this policy.

Bribery Act 2010

Tutor Doctor West Hull is committed to complying with the Bribery Act 2010 in all its business activities. Under the Bribery Act 2010, a bribe is a financial or other type of advantage that is offered or requested with the:

- intention of inducing or rewarding improper performance of a function or activity; or
- knowledge or belief that accepting such a reward would constitute the improper performance of such a function or activity.

A relevant function or activity includes public, state or business activities or any activity performed in the course of a person's employment, or on behalf of another organisation or individual, where the person performing that activity is expected to perform it in good faith, impartially, or in accordance with a position of trust.

A criminal offence will be committed under the Bribery Act 2010 if:

- an employee or associated person acting for, or on behalf of, Tutor Doctor West Hull offers, promises, gives, requests, receives or agrees to receive bribes; or
- an employee or associated person acting for, or on behalf of, Tutor Doctor West Hull offers, promises or gives a bribe to a foreign public official with the intention of influencing that official in the performance of his/her duties (where local law does not permit or require such influence); and
- Tutor Doctor West Hull does not have the defence that it has adequate procedures in place to prevent bribery by its employees or associated persons.

All employees and associated persons are required to comply with this policy, in accordance with the Bribery Act 2010.

What is Prohibited?

Tutor Doctor West Hull prohibits employees or associated persons from offering, promising, giving, soliciting or accepting any bribe. The bribe might be cash, a gift or other inducement to, or from, any person or organisation, whether a public or government official, official of a state-controlled industry, political party or a private person or company, regardless of whether the employee or associated person is situated in the UK or overseas.

The bribe might be made to ensure that a person or Tutor Doctor West Hull improperly performs duties or functions (for example, by not acting impartially or in good faith or in accordance with their position of trust) to gain any commercial, contractual or regulatory advantage for the organisation in either obtaining or maintaining the business, or to gain any personal advantage, financial or otherwise, for the individual or anyone connected with the individual.

This prohibition also applies to indirect contributions, payments or gifts made in any manner as an inducement or reward, for example through consultants, contractors or sub-contractors, agents or sub-agents, sponsors or sub-sponsors, joint-venture partners, advisors, customers, suppliers or other third parties.

Records

Employees and, where applicable, associated persons, are required to take particular care to ensure that all Tutor Doctor West Hull records are accurately maintained in relation to any contracts or business activities, including financial invoices and all payment transactions with clients, suppliers and public officials.

Due diligence should be undertaken by employees and associated persons prior to entering into any contract, arrangement or relationship with a potential supplier of services, agent, consultant or representative.

Employees and associated persons are required to keep accurate, detailed and up-to-date records of all corporate hospitality, entertainment or gifts accepted or offered.

Corporate entertainment, gifts, hospitality and promotional expenditure

Tutor Doctor West Hull permits corporate entertainment, gifts, hospitality and promotional expenditure that is undertaken:

- for the purpose of establishing or maintaining good business relationships;
- to improve the image and reputation of Tutor Doctor West Hull; or
- to present the Tutor Doctor West Hull's services effectively;

provided that it is:

- arranged in good faith, and
- not offered, promised or accepted to secure an advantage for Tutor Doctor West Hull or any of its employees or
- associated persons or to influence the impartiality of the recipient.

Tutor Doctor West Hull will authorise only reasonable, appropriate and proportionate entertainment and promotional expenditure.

Procedure

Employees and, where relevant, associated persons should submit requests for proposed hospitality and promotional expenditure well in advance of proposed dates to the Company Director.

Employees are required to set out in writing:

- the objective of the proposed client entertainment or expenditure;
- the identity of those who will be attending;
- the organisation that they represent; and
- details and rationale of the proposed activity.

Tutor Doctor West Hull will approve business entertainment proposals only if they demonstrate a clear business objective and are appropriate for the nature of the business relationship. Tutor Doctor West Hull will not approve business entertainment where it considers that a conflict of interest may arise or where it could be perceived that undue influence or a particular business benefit was being sought (for example, prior to a tendering exercise).

Any gifts, rewards or entertainment received or offered from parents, clients, public officials, suppliers or other business contacts, considered by staff to be a bribe should be reported immediately to the Company Director. In such circumstances, it is not appropriate to retain such gifts or be provided with the entertainment and employees and associated persons will be asked to return the gifts to the sender or refuse the entertainment, for example, where there could be a real or perceived conflict of interest.

Any gifts, rewards or entertainment received or offered from parents, clients, public officials, suppliers or other business contacts, as a show of appreciation must be reported to the Company Director. As a general rule, small gifts offered as a show of appreciation and valuing less than £100 may be retained, so long as the gift is logged with the Company Director and the offering is a genuine gift and not money or equivalent. Tutor Doctor West Hull prefers customers and clients to show their appreciation for their tutors by providing positive reviews of its tutors and services.

Charitable and Political Donations

Tutor Doctor West Hull considers that charitable giving can form part of its wider commitment and responsibility to the community. Tutor Doctor West Hull supports charities that are selected in accordance with objective criteria.

Tutor Doctor West Hull may also support fundraising events involving employees.

Tutor Doctor West Hull does not support any particular political party, nor does it provide political donations.

Reporting Suspected Bribery

Tutor Doctor West Hull depends on its employees and associated persons to ensure that the highest standards of ethical conduct are maintained in all its business dealings. Employees and associated persons are requested to assist Tutor Doctor West Hull and to remain vigilant in preventing, detecting and reporting bribery.

Employees and associated persons are encouraged to report any concerns that they may have to the Company Director as soon as possible. Issues that should be reported include:

- any suspected or actual attempts at bribery;
- concerns that other employees or associated persons may be being bribed; or
- concerns that other employees or associated persons may be bribing third parties, such as clients or government officials.

Procedure

Employees should record any incidents of suspected bribery. Any such reports will be thoroughly and promptly investigated by the Company Director in the strictest confidence. Employees and associated persons will be required to assist in any investigation into possible or suspected bribery.

Employees or associated persons who report instances of bribery in good faith will be supported by the School. Tutor Doctor West Hull will ensure that the individual is not subjected to detrimental treatment as a consequence of his/her report. Any instances of detrimental treatment by a fellow employee because an employee has made a report will be treated as a disciplinary offence.

An instruction to cover up wrongdoing is itself a disciplinary offence. If told not to raise or pursue any concern, even by a person in authority such as a manager, employees and associated persons should not agree to remain silent. They should report the matter to the Company Director.

Action

Tutor Doctor West Hull will fully investigate any instances of alleged or suspected bribery. Employees suspected of bribery may be suspended from their duties while the investigation is being carried out. Tutor Doctor West Hull will invoke its disciplinary procedures where any employee is suspected of bribery, and proven allegations may result in a finding of gross misconduct and immediate dismissal. Tutor Doctor West Hull may terminate the contracts of any associated persons, including consultants or other workers who act for, or on behalf of, Tutor Doctor West Hull who are found to have breached this policy.

Tutor Doctor West Hull may also report any matter to the relevant authorities, including the Director of Public Prosecutions, Serious Fraud Office, Revenue and Customs Prosecutions Office and the police. Tutor Doctor West Hull will provide all necessary assistance to the relevant authorities in any subsequent prosecution.

Review of Procedures

Tutor Doctor West Hull will monitor and review the implementation of this policy and related procedures on a regular basis, including reviews of internal financial systems, expenses, corporate hospitality, gifts and entertainment policies.

Tutor Doctor West Hull reserves the right to amend and update this policy as required. For the avoidance of doubt, this policy does not form part of employees' contracts of employment.

Next review by 01 September 2023